

GE - South Africa

OPERATING OVER 100 YEARS

Did you know GE has been in Africa for over 100 years? GE opened its 1st overseas office in Johannesburg in 1898

Unit 1, 130 Gazelle Ave,
Johannesburg, 1685

GE IN AFRICA
JOHANNESBURG,
SOUTH AFRICA

SOUTH AFRICA

FIND GE WORKSHOPS AT

Africa Innovation Centre, near Rosebank
- Johannesburg

GE EMPLOYEES

GE has created employment for over 1100+ individuals as a direct result of its global acquisition of Alstom's energy business, the GESAT joint venture formation and through sustainable development initiatives in skills and small medium enterprise development.

1100+
EMPLOYEES

SUPPORT

South Africa's National Development Plan and was awarded the inaugural Siyabonga Business Award

AVIATION

Interesting fact - a GE or CFM powered aircraft takes off somewhere in the world every 2 minutes

AGREEMENTS

GE has signed historic Country2Company agreements and Memorandum of Understanding with major African countries in order to support local Government

HEALTHCARE

GE ships over $2 million worth of parts annually

Installed healthcare base of over 800 diagnostic imaging products

Over 6000 clinical devices installed such as anesthesia equipment and monitors

GE Foundation donated $1 million to the Nelson Mandela Children's Fund for the construction of the Nelson Mandela Children's Hospital.

TRANSPORTATION

GESAT production for the 'Evolution' series of locomotives started in 2015 and uses 5% less fuel, 40% less emissions and made from 55% local content suppliers making this the African GE Locomotive. GESAT will supply over 500 locomotives by the end of 2018, 233 of which will be the "Evolution" series

POWER

Has a 70% + installed base of GE technology in the power sector

WATER

Partnered with Transnet SOC to manufacture locomotives in South Africa for export into the rest of Africa

SKILLS AND TRAINING

Africa Innovation Centre will enable GE to innovate "in Africa for Africa" and contribute to the enhancement of skills and support SME development in the innovation space

OIL & GAS

GE's Flow and Process Technology business, a subset of GE Oil & Gas completed their largest order in the petrochemical industry

